5. Definitions

- 5.1. The definition of a 'Complaint' is:

The expression of at least one of the following elements that persists after being considered and examined at the operational level capable of making a decision on the matter:

- A reproach against an organization;
- The identification of a real or potential harm that a consumer has experienced or may experience;
- A request for remedial action.

Complaints are generally expressed in writing through correspondence, e-mail, fax or other form that allows a Complaint to be kept on file. Where a consumer makes a Complaint by phone or in person and the Complaint is handled and examined by the person responsible for the examination of Complaints and designated as such in the organisation's policy, the Complaint must be documented so that it can be kept on file.

The initial expression of dissatisfaction by a consumer, whether in writing or otherwise, will not be considered a Complaint where the issue is settled in the ordinary course of business. However, in the event the consumer remains dissatisfied and such dissatisfaction is referred to the person who is responsible for the examination of complaints and designated as such in the organisation's policy, then it will be considered as a Complaint.

However, organisations must refrain from any undue delay in referring a matter to a higher level solely for the purpose of avoiding reporting requirements.

Where a consumer remains dissatisfied after a reasonable attempt has been made to settle the issue, organisations without a multilevel Complaint examination structure are then considered to have received a Complaint.

- 5.2. A Complainant is defined as :

All current and prospective customers of insurance products (known under Canadian law as a Consumer), who makes a Complaint.

Code of Consumer Rights and Responsibilities

Insurers (including Lloyd's Underwriters), along with the brokers and agents who sell home, auto and business insurance are committed to safeguarding your rights both when you shop for insurance and when you submit a claim following a loss. Your rights include the right to be informed fully, to be treated fairly, to timely complaint resolution, and to privacy. These rights are grounded in the contract between you and your insurer and the insurance laws of your province. With rights, however, come responsibilities including, for example, the expectation that you will provide complete and accurate information to your insurer. Your policy outlines other important responsibilities. Insurers and their distribution networks, and governments also have important roles to play in ensuring that your rights are protected.

Right to Be Informed

You can expect to access clear information about your policy, your coverage, and the claims settlement process. You have the right to an easy-to-understand explanation of how insurance works and how it will meet your needs. You also have a right to know how insurers calculate price based on relevant facts. Under normal circumstances, insurers will advise an insurance customer or the customer's intermediary of changes to, or the cancellation of a policy within a reasonable prescribed period prior to the expiration of the policy, if the customer provides information required for determining renewal terms of the policy within the time prescribed, which could vary by province, but is usually 45 days prior to expiry of the policy.

You have the right to ask who is providing compensation to your broker or agent for the sale of your insurance. Your broker or agent will provide information detailing for you how he or she is paid, by whom, and in what ways.

You have a right to be told about insurers' compensation arrangements with their distribution networks. You have a right to ask the broker or agent with whom you deal for details of how and by whom it is being paid. Brokers and agents are committed to providing information relating to ownership, financing, and other relevant facts.

Responsibility to Ask Questions and Share Information

To safeguard your right to purchase appropriate coverage at a competitive price, you should ask questions about your policy so that you understand what it covers and what your obligations are under it. You can access information through one-on-one meetings with your broker or agent. You have the option to shop the marketplace for the combination of coverages and service levels that best suits your insurance needs. To maintain your protection against loss, you must promptly inform your broker or agent of any change in your circumstances.

Right to Complaint Resolution

Insurers, their brokers and agents are committed to high standards of customer service. If you have a complaint about the service you have received, you have a right to access Lloyd's Underwriters' complaint resolution process for Canada. Your agent or broker can provide you with information about how you can ensure that your complaint is heard and promptly handled. Consumers may also contact their respective provincial insurance regulator for information. Lloyd's is a member of an independent complaint resolution office, the General Insurance OmbudService.

Responsibility to Resolve Disputes

You should always enter into the dispute resolution process in good faith, provide required information in a timely manner, and remain open to recommendations made by independent observers as part of that process.

Right to Professional Service

You have the right to deal with insurance professionals who exhibit a high ethical standard, which includes acting with honesty, integrity, fairness and skill. Brokers and agents must exhibit extensive knowledge of the product, its coverages and its limitations in order to best serve you.

Right to Privacy

Because it is important for you to disclose any and all information required by an insurer to provide the insurance coverage that best suits you, you have the right to know that your information will be used for the purpose set out in the privacy statement made available to you by your broker, agent or insurance representative. This information will not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted by law. You should know that Lloyd's Underwriters are subject to Canada's privacy laws - with respect to their business in Canada.

CODE DES DROITS ET RESPONSABILITÉS DU CONSOMMATEUR

Les assureurs (y compris les Souscripteurs du Lloyd's), de même que les courtiers et agents qui font souscrire des polices d'assurance habitation, automobile et entreprise, tiennent à protéger vos droits tant que lorsque vous cherchez une assurance que lorsque vous présentez une demande d'indemnité à la suite d'un sinistre. Vous avez notamment droit à une information complète, à un traitement équitable, à un règlement diligent de vos plaintes et à la protection des renseignements personnels qui vous concernent. Ces droits sont fondés sur le contrat conclu entre vous et votre assureur et sur les lois de votre province en matière d'assurance. Cependant, les droits s'accompagnent de responsabilités. On s'attend par exemple à ce que vous fournissiez des renseignements complets et exacts à votre assureur. D'autres responsabilités importantes sont décrites dans votre police. Les assureurs et leurs réseaux de distribution ainsi que les gouvernements ont également un rôle important dans la protection de vos droits.

Droit d'être informé

Vous pouvez vous attendre à des renseignements clairs sur votre police, votre protection et le processus de règlement des sinistres. Vous avez droit à des explications claires sur le fonctionnement de l'assurance et la façon dont elle répond à vos besoins. Vous avez également le droit de savoir comment les assureurs calculent le prix à partir de faits pertinents. Normalement, les assureurs donnent au client ou à son intermédiaire un préavis raisonnable (dont la durée est fixée par la loi) du non-renouvellement de son assurance ou des modifications prenant effet au renouvellement pourvu que le client fournisse les renseignements nécessaires à l'établissement des conditions de renouvellement au moins 45 jours (ou le nombre de jours fixé dans la loi) avant l'expiration du contrat.

Vous avez le droit de demander qui rémunère votre courtier ou agent pour la souscription de votre assurance. Votre courtier ou agent vous expliquera comment il est rémunéré, par qui et sous quelles formes.

Vous avez le droit de connaître les ententes de rémunération conclues par les assureurs avec leurs réseaux de distribution. Vous avez le droit de demander à votre courtier ou agent de vous expliquer comment et par qui il est payé. Les courtiers et les agents doivent fournir les renseignements concernant la propriété, le financement et autres faits pertinents.

Responsabilité de poser des questions et de fournir des renseignements

Pour protéger votre droit à la souscription d'une assurance appropriée à un prix concurrentiel, vous devez poser des questions sur votre police afin de comprendre la protection qu'elle vous procure et les obligations qu'elle vous impose. Vous pouvez obtenir des renseignements dans le cadre de rencontres en tête-à-tête avec votre courtier ou agent. Vous êtes libre de faire le tour du marché de manière à obtenir la combinaison de garanties et de services qui répond le mieux à vos besoins. Pour conserver votre protection contre les sinistres, vous devez informer sans délai votre courtier ou agent de tout changement dans votre situation.

Droit au règlement des plaintes

Les assureurs, leurs courtiers et leurs agents s'imposent des normes élevées en matière de service à la clientèle. Si vous avez à vous plaindre du service que vous avez reçu, vous avez le droit de recourir au processus de règlement des plaintes des Souscripteurs du Lloyd's pour le Canada. Votre courtier ou agent peut vous expliquer ce que vous devez faire pour que votre plainte soit entendue et traitée rapidement. Les consommateurs peuvent aussi consulter l'autorité de réglementation de l'assurance de leur province. Le Lloyd's est membre d'un organisme de règlement des plaintes indépendant, le Service de conciliation en assurance de dommages.

Responsabilité de régler les différends

Vous devez toujours vous engager de bonne foi dans le processus de règlement des différends, fournir promptement les renseignements demandés et être ouvert aux recommandations formulées par des observateurs indépendants dans le cadre de ce processus.

Droit à un service professionnel

Vous avez le droit de traiter avec des professionnels de l'assurance qui observent des normes déontologiques rigoureuses et agissent avec honnêteté, intégrité, équité et compétence. Les courtiers et agents d'assurance doivent démontrer une connaissance approfondie du produit, de ses garanties et de ses restrictions afin de vous offrir un service optimal.

Droit à la protection des renseignements personnels

Étant donné qu'il est important que vous communiquiez à l'assureur tous les renseignements dont il a besoin pour vous fournir la protection qui vous convient le mieux, vous avez le droit de savoir que les renseignements qui vous concernent seront utilisés uniquement aux fins décrites dans l'énoncé sur la protection des renseignements personnels mis à votre disposition par votre courtier, agent ou représentant d'assurance. Ces renseignements ne seront communiqués à des tiers que dans la mesure où la loi le permet. Vous devez savoir que, en ce qui concerne leurs affaires canadiennes, les Souscripteurs du Lloyd's sont assujettis aux lois canadiennes régissant la protection des renseignements personnels.

WAR AND CIVIL WAR EXCLUSION CLAUSE

(Approved by Lloyd's Underwriters' Non-Marine Association)

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein this Policy does not cover Loss or Damage directly or indirectly occasioned by, happening through or in consequence of war, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether war be declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power or confiscation or nationalisation or requisition or destruction of or damage to property by or under the order of any government or public or local authority.

- (b) of which the Assured becomes aware and advises the amount thereof to Underwriters hereon within one year of the commencement of such Damage or Destruction.
2. In calculating the amount, if any, payable under this Policy for loss where costs or expenses for removal of debris are incurred by the Assured (subject to the limitations in paragraph 1 above):
